

Epilepsy Society of Australia membership categories.

Classification	Details	Voting rights	ASM fees	Dues
Ordinary	Consultant Medical Practitioner a/Prof or Professor (including our scientific and neuropsych colleagues)	Full	full	full
Special (subset of ordinary – at the discretion of the board)	Trainee Fellow Nurses – Research/Clinical Students Community Organisations Allied Health EEG scientist/ technician Research Scientist (non-professorial) Parental leave	Full	discount	discount
Honorary	Honorary status is awarded for outstanding contribution to the field of Epilepsy. Honorary members are selected by the executive	nil	discount	nil
Senior	A senior member is someone that has retired from practice but has previously been a long standing member of the ESA (> 10 years).	Full	Discount	nil
Associate	Associate Members may be elected to the Company from other ILAE or IBE chapters. Associate Members may be entitled to receive all of the Company's information and discounts, but are ineligible to vote at meetings of members. Associate Members will pay reduced or no subscriptions at the discretion of the Board.	nil	Full (unless in “special group” also)	nil
Other	In exceptional circumstances, the Board may choose to award membership to a professional from a country other than Australia and New Zealand, such as a physician working in a developing neighbour country without an ILAE chapter, or a distinguished professional who has made a significant contribution to the Company.	nil	full	nil